

Exhibitor Showcase Sessions

Thursday, November 19

10:15 a.m.–10:45 a.m.

Booth 2147: Five Things You Need to Know About the Praxis Exam Transition, presented by the ASHA Clinical Certification Team

The Praxis examinations in Audiology and SLP will transition to a new company in January 2027. Stop by this showcase to learn what you need to know about the transition. This is a great opportunity for clinical supervisors, program directors, graduate students, and post-graduate professionals to prepare for the transition.

10:30 a.m.–11:00 a.m.

Booth 753: Can I Use the Compact Yet? Understanding ASLP-IC Eligibility, Privileges, and Interstate Practice, presented by the ASHA Government Affairs Team

Join ASHA's interstate compact experts for a fast-paced discussion of the Audiology & Speech-Language Pathology Interstate Compact (ASLP-IC). Learn where implementation stands, who is eligible, how privileges differ from licenses, and what practitioners need to know about telepractice and interstate mobility. Bring your questions and get real-time answers from the team working directly with states and the Compact Commission.

11:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.

Booth 2147: By the Numbers: Inside ASHA's Analytics, Surveys & Data Science, presented by the ASHA Analytics and Survey Team

Meet the team behind ASHA's analytics, surveys, and data science work. Discover how we turn data into insights that support ASHA and its members, while exploring resources available to the professions. See the story behind the numbers!

11:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Booth 753: Discover What's New at Simucase, presented by Simucase

Simucase is growing. Explore new clinical simulations, expanded video content, and hundreds of newly added educational video courses — all designed to help SLP students build clinical confidence and give working clinicians new ways to learn and grow. See what's next for clinical training at this year's showcase.

12:00 p.m.–12:30 p.m.

Booth 2147: PDH and ASHA CEUs Myth-Busters, jointly presented by the ASHA Clinical Certification and Continuing Education Teams

Join us as we debunk the myths about ASHA CEUs and PDHs and explain the differences between these two forms of credit and how to use them.

Thursday, November 19, cont.

12:15 p.m.–12:45 p.m.

Booth 753: AAC Gets Conversational with Lingraphica, presented by Lingraphica

Meet Conversations, a new AI-supported tool that helps AAC users keep pace with real-time conversations and respond in the moment. See how it works, then explore the latest updates across Lingraphica devices, with more ways to communicate, practice, and connect throughout the day.

1:00 p.m.–1:30 p.m.

Booth 753: The Five Most Common Ethics Violations - and How to Prevent Them, presented by the ASHA Ethics Team

The Senior Director of Ethics will talk about the most common ethics violations reviewed by the Board of Ethics, and easy steps you can take to prevent them from happening to you.

1:00 p.m.–1:30 p.m.

Booth 2147: Five Things to Know about Maintaining Your ASHA Certification, presented by the ASHA Clinical Certification Team

Stop by this showcase to learn how to maintain your ASHA Certification. We'll talk about the professional development requirements, the types of acceptable activities, and how to document and submit your compliance form once you've completed your requirements.

2:00 p.m.–2:30 p.m.

Booth 753: ElevenLabs Voice Cloning and Singing Cloning in more than 70 Languages, presented by ElevenLabs

This hands-on session will demonstrate the practical opportunities for professionals to support clients in creating highly authentic spoken and singing voice clones that can be created quickly and at no cost for qualifying applicants in the Impact Program.

2:00 p.m.–2:30 p.m.

Booth 2147: From Accurate Testing to the First Fit: See Auditdata Measure in Action, presented by Auditdata, Inc.

Join us for a live product demonstration to see how Auditdata Measure connects audiological hardware and clinical software to standardize testing and fitting workflows, boost clinical confidence, and simplify staff onboarding, all while helping your team deliver accurate, consistent results patients can trust from the very first fit.

3:00 p.m.–3:30 p.m.

Booth 753: Get to Know the ASHA Workload Calculator, presented by the ASHA School Services Team

See the transformed ASHA Workload Calculator in action! Join the ASHA School Services team for a live, interactive demonstration of the newly enhanced tool. Learn how to customize the calculator, track your workload, identify trends, and generate data that can support meaningful workload discussions. Bring your questions and receive individualized coaching, practical tips, and real-world strategies to help you confidently use the tool and get the most from your workload data.

Thursday, November 19, cont.

3:00 p.m.–3:30 p.m.

Booth 2147: Clinical Resource Spotlight: Your Roadside Assistance Toolkit, jointly presented by the ASHA NCEP and Practice Portal Teams

When your clinical practice is at a crossroads, ASHA resources can serve as your roadside assistance toolkit. Join us for a brief overview of the Evidence Maps, Practice Portal, NOMS, EBP Toolkit, and Demonstration of Value fact sheets. Learn how these practical resources can help you navigate clinical questions, find the best available evidence, improve the quality of your services, and demonstrate your value.

3:45 p.m.–4:15 p.m.

Booth 753: The SPEAK OUT! Toolkit: Exploring the eLibrary & Online Resources, presented by Parkinson Voice Project

Explore the SPEAK OUT! eLibrary, Home Practice Videos, and other online resources that support patients, Care Partners, and SLPs throughout SPEAK OUT! Therapy.

3:45 p.m.–4:15 p.m.

Booth 2147: Ready for 92507? See how Fusion fits the change into everyday workflow, presented by Fusion by Ensora Health

Billing is changing significantly in 2027. See how Fusion by Ensora Health turns your documentation into clean billing, powered by Ensai, our built-in AI, so your practice is ready for the change instead of scrambling.

4:30 p.m.–5:00 p.m.

Booth 753: ASHA Membership Quizzo, presented by the ASHA Membership Team

Join us for a lively, interactive trivia game to discover the many ways ASHA supports the professions.

4:30 p.m.–5:00 p.m.

Booth 2147: What's Fluency Got to Do With It? presented by ASHA Clinical Services in SLP Team

Misconceptions about stuttering treatment continue to influence clinical decision-making, public perceptions, and the experiences of people who stutter. Let's explore contemporary perspectives on stuttering treatment and discuss how SLPs can support communication, participation, confidence, and quality of life through stuttering-affirming approaches.

Friday, November 20

11:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Booth 2147: Get to Know the ASHA Workload Calculator, presented by the ASHA School Services Team

See the transformed ASHA Workload Calculator in action! Join the ASHA School Services team for a live, interactive demonstration of the newly enhanced tool. Learn how to customize the calculator, track your workload, identify trends, and generate data that can support meaningful workload discussions. Bring your questions and receive individualized coaching, practical tips, and real-world strategies to help you confidently use the tool and get the most from your workload data.

11:45 a.m.–12:15 p.m.

Booth 753: See Raintree in Action: Simplifying Rehab Therapy Operations, presented by Raintree

See how Raintree helps rehab therapy organizations streamline everyday workflows in one connected platform. During this live demonstration, we'll walk through key features designed to support clinical, operational, and financial teams, helping speech practices improve efficiency, simplify processes, and spend more time on delivering exceptional patient care.

12:30 p.m.–1:00 p.m.

Booth 753: Enhancing Pedagogy and Clinical Preparation in Communication Sciences: A Look into Lippincott Connect, presented by Wolters Kluwer

This session offers an exploration of Lippincott Connect, a comprehensive digital learning platform designed to support academic instruction and clinical readiness in speech-language pathology and audiology programs. Attendees will examine how the platform integrates authoritative content, including interactive multimedia, formative assessments, and analytics that inform teaching and learning outcomes. Faculty, clinical educators, and program directors will gain insights into how Lippincott Connect can be leveraged to align with curriculum goals, support diverse learning styles, and foster evidence-based practice among students preparing for careers in communication sciences and disorders.

12:30 p.m.–1:00 p.m.

Booth 2147: Empress3D: The New Standard in Ear Scanning, presented by Aurality, Inc.

Ditch messy silicone impressions. Join our info session to learn about the Empress3D - the next revolution in 3D ear scanning, and the missing link to a fully digital workflow.

1:15 p.m.–1:45 p.m.

Booth 753: Have You Heard? Q&A with Northern Arizona University, presented by the ASHA Office of Multicultural Affairs Team

Join the Office of Multicultural Affairs for a Q&A with faculty from Northern Arizona University. We will give an overview of ASHA's Have You Heard site, discuss NAU's initiatives, and field questions about the work they're doing to bring a more diverse range of lived experiences into the professions.

Friday, November 20, cont.

1:30 p.m.–2:00 p.m.

Booth 2147: Making the Case: Translating Clinical Needs into Administrative Priorities, presented by the ASHA Health Care Services Team

Administrators and clinicians often approach the same challenge from different perspectives. Join ASHA staff for a guided walkthrough of the four Making a Case resources, which help SLPs connect clinical needs to organizational priorities. Explore practical tools for framing conversations about staffing and workload, access to services, quality and patient outcomes, and the business impact of SLP services. Learn how to use data, evidence, and compelling narratives to communicate in ways that resonate with health care leaders and support informed decision-making.

2:00 p.m.–2:30 p.m.

Booth 753: Navigating MTSS and IDEA for School SLPs with Authors Lesley Sylvan and Angie Neal, presented by Plural Publishing, Inc.

Lesley Sylvan, MS, EdM, EdD, and Angie Neal, MS, explore two critical areas of school-based practice: MTSS and IDEA. Join them as they highlight practical, evidence-based guidance and tools from their new Plural Publishing books that help SLPs navigate challenges and support decision-making, collaboration, implementation, and effective services for students.

2:15 p.m.–2:45 p.m.

Booth 2147: THE CASE OF THE ASSISTANT: Inside the Assistant Certification Program, presented by the ASHA Clinical Certification Team

We will present five short stories in a detective, film-noir style that cover the Assistants Certification Program.

3:00 p.m.–3:30 p.m.

Booth 2147: 80 Years Bold: What Can the ASHFoundation Do for You? presented by the ASHA Foundation Team

Learn how the ASHFoundation's mission creates innovative impact within the professions by awarding clinical achievement awards, research grants, and scholarship opportunities to hundreds of recipients each year. Discover how the ASHFoundation works, ask past award recipients and board members questions, and play a brief trivia game for prizes.

3:45 p.m.–4:15 p.m.

Booth 753: The Game Plan: Simplifying Complex Caseloads with Purpose-Built Materials, presented by Serafina Communications

Caseload complexity is real, and so is SLP burnout. This session shares purpose-built, multi-goal materials that flex across ages and settings—so clinicians can spend less time preparing and more time practicing what works.